The Baptism of Our Lord Colouring Page

Your Baptism

There are four main symbols or items that mean something special that were visible at your baptism. I will give you this name of the symbol and what it means and you need to draw a picture to go with it. You can look up the symbol, ask your parents or Father Aleks to show you the symbol at St. Agnes or see if you can find some pictures of your baptism that will help you with your drawing.

The Symbol

Your Drawing

The Candle

(Jesus said, I am light
for the world And He wants your light to shine, too)

Water

(Water is the sign of purity and cleanliness.
Baptism washed away
the mark of sin from your soul)

The Cross

(Jesus died on the cross for us. It is the sign of God's love for you)

Something white like a baptism gown that you wore (The white, like water, is the sign of purity and new beginnings)

You are my Son, the Beloved
